

SIXTEEN DIE AS TRAINS CRASH

100 People Hurt, Many Fatally, in Morning Collision at Wallingford, Conn.

PULLMAN CARS REDUCED TO SPLINTERS IN CRASH

Accident is Eleventh on New Haven Road in Two Years; Will be Probed

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 2.—Sixteen people were killed and one hundred injured, many perhaps fatally, when the White Mountain Express of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad collided with the Bar Harbor Express this morning near Wallingford, Conn. The Bar Harbor train was made up of eleven Pullmans. The last two coaches were reduced to kindling when the collision occurred. The majority of the dead were in these two Pullman cars. Physicians and nurses were hurriedly taken to Wallingford by special trains. Heavy fog is reported to have been responsible for the collision.

Details of Accident
Soon after the wreck had been reported the railroad officials admitted that thirteen corpses had been removed, and that twenty people were seriously injured. The survivors from the last two cars of the Pullman train were practically all hurt. The rescue work was slow.

All of the Pullmans were wooden cars. The majority of the passengers were in their berths when the collision occurred. Both trains were west-bound and the Bar Harbor Express was barely moving when the White Mountain train struck it at a speed of forty-five miles an hour. Some of the corpses were found fifty feet from the tracks after the wreck.

The engineer of the White Mountain express says there were no lights on the train ahead. Both Engineer Albert Miller and Fireman Robertson of the White Mountain express saved themselves by jumping.

In the third Pullman of the Bar Harbor train were forty boys who were returning to New York from a camping trip. All were badly injured.

Today's is the eleventh serious accident on the New Haven road within two years. The Interstate Commerce Commission today dispatched inspectors from Washington to investigate the case. Engineer Miller of the White Mountain express has been arrested.

Ghastly Sight
The bodies of the dead lie in the morgue. Two of the injured died in hospitals. One headless trunk was found far from the tracks. A skull from which the flesh was torn was found rods away. One body was found hanging on the telegraph wires on the side of the tracks. An inquest is being held. The wooden Pullmans had already been condemned. These are responsible for the slaughter.

MANY BAG LIMITS TAKEN YESTERDAY BY DOVE HUNTERS

Many of the hunters who went out yesterday for shooting on the opening day of the dove season brought home limit bags. Doves were found to be plentiful, but the first day's hunting thinned the birds out and rendered them wild. Limit bags will be hard to get from now on.

Several deputy game wardens kept a close look-out for quail hunters, and at least one prosecution will result. A party of hunters on the Bixby ranch were found hunting quail out of season.

Would Kill the 'Jay Walkers' of United States

TACOMA, Wn., Sept. 2.—A campaign of ridicule directed toward the extermination of the "Jay Walker Family" was inaugurated here today by the local automobile club. The "Jay Walker Family," according to explanations made today, is numerous. It is composed of those pedestrians who cross congested streets without first looking to see if it is safe to do so. The local automobile club today adopted resolutions suggesting propaganda to be distributed all over the country to "kill off the Jay Walker Family." Automobile clubs all over the country, it was decided today, will be asked to aid in exterminating "Mr. and Mrs. Jay Walker and all the little Walkers."

MAKES A FIGHT FOR LOWER RATES

Complaint Alleges Santa Ana Should Have 35-Cent One-way and 50c Round-trip

BEACH TOWNS ARE MUCH INTERESTED

Complaint for Reduction Has Been Filed With State Railroad Commission

The opening gun in the long expected campaign for lower passenger rates on the interurban lines in Southern California was fired Saturday when the Los Angeles Rate Association filed a complaint with the State Railroad Commission. More than two score cities and towns are joined together in the demand for a reasonable revision.

A paragraph of the complaint is devoted to the interests of Santa Ana. It is alleged that the rates of fare now charged are in violation of section 13 of the Public Utilities act. The campaign doubtless will be heartily supported by residents of this city, the Chamber of Commerce already having promised to aid in the campaign.

Orange, Newport, Garden Grove and Olinda are alike interested. The present fare between Santa Ana and Los Angeles is alleged to be based on a distance of 33 miles, while the approximate distance from the city limits of Los Angeles to this city is 25 miles. Attorneys O. L. Horn, F. M. Steele and E. H. Jordan, who filed papers for the rate association, have made a long study of the rate question.

It is submitted that a reasonable and just charge between Santa Ana and Los Angeles would be 35 cents for one way and 50 cents for round trip tickets. A similar reduction would give Orange a rate of 40 cents a single trip and 55 cents for an excursion ticket. Nearby points would be proportionately reduced.

To outline a plan for conducting the campaign just started, a meeting of the executive committee of the rate association will be held at 8 o'clock tonight. Ways and means will also be discussed. The meeting will be held at 305 Merchants Trust building, Los Angeles.

All of the beach resorts nearest Los Angeles have joined the demand for a 25-cent round trip rate to the city and vice versa. Practically every point reached by the Pacific Electric lines is included.

Government Brings Suit to Smash Coal Trust Which Has Near Monopoly of Coal

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—Another attempt to smash the anthracite coal trust was begun in the federal court today when the government, under the Sherman anti-trust law, filed a suit for its dissolution. The Reading system, including its railroad and coal companies and subsidiaries, was attacked by the government, which alleges that the system owns seventy-five per cent of all the anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania and transports fifty per cent of all the anthracite coal mined in the state. The government application asserts: "Unless the present combination is ended, the Reading system will in time control every ton of commercially valuable coal known to exist."

DIGGS' SENTENCE DATE NOW SEPT. 10

Marsha Warrington Forced to Repeat Part of Story as to Maurv Diggs

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The sentencing of Maury Diggs, convicted of violation of the white slave act by eloping to Reno with Marsha Warrington, was postponed today until September 10, with the consent of attorneys on both sides.

Juror William Adams, injured on Saturday in an automobile accident, hobbled into court today and the Caminetti trial was resumed.

Marsha Warrington resumed the stand today and was compelled under re-direct examination to recite instances of her relations with Diggs. She denied Diggs ever asked her to leave Sacramento on account of her physical condition.

Lola Norris on the stand recited the details of the liaison, quickly showing that she would not protect Caminetti, who appeared nervous throughout the testimony. She testified that she remained virtuous throughout all the trips, resisting Caminetti until they reached Reno.

During the girl's recital the puerile-minded audience shuffled uneasily when unable to hear testimony. Judge Van Fleet interrupted, saying: "Speak up louder, Miss Norris. Some of the ladies in the rear of the room fear they will miss some of the details."

None of the other women connected with the case were present except Marsha Warrington, who departed when she had concluded her testimony. Miss Norris seemed terrified when left alone. As the session closed she leaned over to Prosecutor Roche, pleading: "Please don't leave me alone." She affirmed Marsha Warrington's testimony that the men said the police were after them, and they must flee to Sacramento.

THREE CHILDREN DEAD RESULT OF EXPLOSION OF DISTILLATE TANK

Little Tots Built Fire Close to Inflammable Fluid—Two Little Boys and Girl Killed

ANAHEIM, Sept. 2.—By the explosion of a can of distillate yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, three children were killed. The dead are Melvin, aged 6, and William, aged 1½ years, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Redmann, and the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bischof.

The Redmann and Bischof families reside in the Katella district three miles southwest of Anaheim, across the street from each other.

Fumigators had been at work on the Redmann ranch, and a tank of distillate was left under a walnut tree. Several children, including the three that were killed, had gathered under the tree to play. Some of the children had raked a pile of walnut leaves together and started a fire, and from that the distillate was ignited.

Mrs. Bischof was an eye-witness of the terrible tragedy that robbed her of one of her children and the neighbors of two of their children. She wanted her little daughter, aged 3½ years, and after calling her had started across the road to get her. She noticed that there was a small fire under the tree. When but 100 feet away the explosion occurred.

Mrs. Bischof ran to the place, and found three of the children in flames. She seized one of the Redmann boys, the closest to her, and threw him into a ditch of water close at hand, and the next she seized was her little girl. She threw the girl into the ditch, and instantly put out the flames. By this time Mrs. Redmann had arrived, and she put out the fire on the other of her boys.

The children were taken into the houses, and physicians were called. Drs. Uter and Janss stated upon examining the children that there was no hope. The Redmann baby died at 7 o'clock, and the other little fellow at midnight. The little Bischof girl died at 10 o'clock.

A little girl of the Redmann family had a narrow escape. Her hair and eyelashes were singed, but fortunately none of the blazing fluid was thrown upon her.

Coroner Winbigger held the inquests jointly this morning. Mrs. Bischof was the principal witness.

AIRMAN LOOPS THE LOOP IN THE AIR

Pegoud Turns Somersault in Ether at 1200 Feet—Volplaned Easily to Ground

PARIS, Sept. 2.—Pegoud, the aviator, who, on August 19, dropped 900 feet from an aeroplane while in flight and, by the use of a parachute invented by M. Bonnet, landed safely, performed another sensational stunt at Juvisy yesterday when he "looped the loop" while flying at a height of 1500 feet in his aeroplane. He afterwards landed without injury.

Pegoud, who used a Bleriot monoplane which had been strengthened in some parts and which was equipped with a Gnome engine, had announced that he intended to turn a somersault in the air and a crowd gathered to watch his movements.

When about 3000 feet up, Pegoud turned the bow of his machine straight toward the earth and darted downward with the motor going at full speed. After dropping about 1200 feet, Pegoud turned his rudder in such a way that the monoplane turned a complete vertical circle. The machine then came down in a great spiral volplane and landed gently on the ground. Pegoud is willing to repeat the performance tomorrow before a board of army officers.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2.—The preliminary hearing of Jess Willard and others connected with the boxing match resulting in the death of "Bull" Young, was continued today until tomorrow, when the attorneys for the defense produced a telegram saying that Eddie Webster, one of the defendants, had been arrested in San Diego and could not appear in court. The defense professed not to know the reason for Webster's arrest.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Because he wore his clothing to tatters walking to San Francisco and back in 322 days, Herbert H. Hoover narrowly escaped being arrested as a vagrant today by an eagle-eyed policeman. Letters proved his identity at a police station and Hoover was permitted to go. He won a wager of $1000 and brought himself into fine physical trim.

Just a Sample of the Missionary Work of The Register "Special"

Winfield, Kans., August 25, 1913.

My Dear Bert:—Have returned to Winfield and find your copy of the "Register" awaiting me, and I want to thank you for the same. It is an excellent ad. for your county, besides being a work of art, and the enterprising spirit of Santa Ana is to be congratulated for its production, and I hope the good it will do you will surpass your highest expectations.

I like your city very much and am considering it as one of the places in which I may locate. I prefer California to the Northwest and especially so when you take climate into consideration. It is a matter of business with me, however, and if I knew that I could do as well as at some of the inland cities, I would not hesitate a second, and it may be that Mrs. Clarkson will select your city anyway, as we have two children, and I know that she prefers to bring them up in a place where there are no saloons.

I will say good-bye and good luck to you, and will let you know where I do locate.

Yours very respectfully,
JOHN CLARKSON.

ENGLAND HAS RAILROAD HORROR

Nine Persons Cremated as Two Trains of Famous Line Collide on Moor

TRAINS CATCH FIRE IN REAR-END COLLISION

Passengers Caught in Trap; 30 Injured Sent by Specials to Hospitals

CARLISLE, England, Sept. 2.—Nine passengers were cremated, an engineer was killed and ten passengers were injured at Hawes Junction when the Manchester Express of the Midland railway collided with the London Express. The wreckage was burned. The trains were two sections of the famous London-Scotland Express.

The two trains had left Carlisle for London at 1:35 and 1:47 this morning, respectively, and the collision occurred 90 miles south of this place on a high and lonely moor.

The first section of the train had stopped to get up steam for a sharp up-grade when the second section dashed into the rear, piling up the sleeping cars, which were crowded with passengers.

Almost immediately several of the cars caught fire and many of the passengers found it impossible to get out. Rescuers from farms in the vicinity came on the scene too late to save many of the passengers.

Nine charred bodies were taken from the wreck and it was believed that several others were still among the debris. About 30 injured passengers were sent on special trains to the Leeds and Carlisle hospitals.

Another disaster occurred near the same spot on Dec. 26, 1910, when eight passengers lost their lives and 25 were injured.

THAW IN COURT ON HABEAS CORPUS

Judge Reserves Decision; Jerome Foresees Success and Rearrest of Thaw

SHERBROOKE, Que., Sept. 2.—The courthouse was placed under guard this morning to prevent a possible demonstration when Harry Thaw appeared for his habeas corpus hearing. William Travers Jerome was also guarded by police, although he laughed at the anonymous threats received to tar and feather him unless he leaves the city.

Assistant Superintendent of Immigration Robertson arrived today for the hearing in company with Dr. Douglass, the alienist, and two immigration inspectors.

Justice Hutchinson reserved his decision on the attempts by attorneys representing New York State to force the release of Thaw. Jerome announced that he was confident Thaw will be liberated within forty-eight hours, when, he says, he will be rearrested and held before the immigration officers with view of securing his deportation as an undesirable citizen. Judge Hutchinson's decision will be announced probably on Thursday.

Everything stolen was recovered except $20 taken at the Remberg home and a diamond ring belonging to Miss Lutz.

CONFIDENCE OF OIL DRILLERS STRENGTHENED

Believed that Well on Ortega
Ranch at Placentia Will Have Oil

FULLERTON, Sept. 2.—The striking of sand on the Armstrong lease north of Placentia has strengthened the confidence of oil drillers in the Placentia district. They feel confident that oil will be struck on the Ortega lease and other leases in the neighborhood, and that this will stimulate a wonderful development in the Fullerton oil fields.

During the past two weeks about fifteen carloads of oil-well casing have been unloaded on the Santa Fe at Fullerton, and just south of the Emory ranch. Part of this casing will be used for development work on the Emory lease and it is said some of it will be used for new wells to be drilled on other leases in that district.

The Amalgamated No. 6 has sanded up several times lately, making frequent cleaning out necessary.

The Thomas Strain well in Placentia is down 3000 feet with the last hundred feet making a good showing. After having considerable trouble with the rotary, the Brand-Stevens Company is changing to cable tools.

The Cornerstone is putting in 6 1/4-inch casing.

The Walker-Brand Oil Company is spudding in on well No. 3.

The Hualde well had hard drilling from the start, but is making good headway now.

At a depth of 3600 feet in the Brand-Stevens Oil Company well the casing twisted off the two-inch drill pipe, and the drillers are fishing for the same.

The Monte Cristo has cemented its well on the Armstrong lease at a depth of 3550 feet, and will test out sand which looks good.

The North American has reached a depth of about 2300 feet, and is getting past the pipe which was lost in the hole several weeks ago.

The Petroleum Company well No. 5 on the Gilman lease, which was started July 27, is down over 200 feet, remarkably good time having been made with the rotary.

ORANGE, Sept. 2.—The wedding of Miss Edith Ross of Los Angeles to Mr. Herbert Sutton of West Orange took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents in the Garvanza district. It was attended only by the two families and a few immediate relatives. Following the ceremony the bridal couple left by automobile for this city, where they will make their home in a cottage on South Grand street, a present from the groom's father.

The bride is a pretty Garvanza girl, known and admired by many in this city, where she has made occasional visits. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. A pretty home wedding was solemnized Saturday evening when Miss Helen Cory became the bride of Wm. B. Park, Jr., of Calexico. The ceremony took place in the presence of the immediate relatives at the Cory home on South Orange street. Rev. Alfred, of Los Angeles, superintendent of the San Diego district of the M. E. church, officiated. The bride was dressed in a neat gray suit and was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Cory as bridesmaid. Bert Winslow of Santa Ana, a student at the University of California and an old chum of the groom, acted as best man.

A short reception and refreshments followed the ceremony, while the guests congratulated the bridal pair and viewed their beautiful collection of wedding gifts.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Park departed for a wedding trip to Catalina. After Sept. 15 they will be at home in Calexico.

HIGH LIVING COST HITS FAMOUS SCHOOL

Georgetown Convent Will Advance Tuition After 150 Years of Low Prices

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The high cost of living has struck Georgetown convent, one of the oldest in the country, and next year, when the girls come to be educated in this old, gray, ivy clad building, they will have to pay a higher tuition.

In all the hundred and fifty years of its existence, the convent has never changed its tuition fee, a ridiculously low one, but recently the Sister Superior, with a furrowed brow, decided that the deficits were becoming so large that even the voluntary contributions from the alumnae could not make it up.

Georgetown convent is a landmark of old colonial and ante-bellum days. In this old school, sitting well back in an old English garden in the old aristocratic section of Georgetown, the daughters of the aristocracy went to be "finished" in needlework, house-keeping, spinning and manners.

Virginia, Washington, Maryland and the Carolinas for over one hundred years have been sending their daughters to Georgetown Convent. Now economics have entered into the scheme of things and the old families whose fortunes have retrograded as time has advanced, face a new phase of the higher cost of living in the high cost of education.

TAFT TO ADDRESS AMERICAN LAWYERS

Will Talk on 'Tenure of Judges' at Annual Convention Being Held in Montreal

MONTREAL, Canada, Sept. 2.—Reports of standing and special committees and discussions of them occupied today's morning and afternoon sessions of the American Bar Association, which is holding its annual convention here.

The reports of standing committees included those on jurisprudence and law reform; judicial administration and remedial procedure; legal education and admissions to the bar; commercial law; international law; grievances; law reporting and digesting; patent trademark and copyright law; insurance law; taxation; uniform state laws; publicity; membership; obituaries. The special committees reporting were those on uniform judicial procedure; to suggest remedies and formulate proposed laws to prevent delay and unnecessary cost in litigation; to oppose judicial recall; compensation for industrial accidents and their prevention; to present to Congress bills relating to courts of admiralty; government liens on real estate; compensation to federal judiciary; drafting of legislation; and comparative law bureau.

The big feature of this evening's session will be an address by former President Taft on "The Tenure of Judges."

Adenoids Are a Menace to Children
Babies and young children must be carefully watched for the growth of adenoids, which spoil the mental and physical life of a child. They usually result from a succession of colds and throat irritations, and their presence is so productive of harm, that many school boards have an examining physician to detect them. The conditions that cause them may be easily avoided by careful parents. Quickly and thoroughly cure all colds and throat irritations by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and adenoids will not develop. Rowley Drug Co. and White Cross Drug Co.—Advertisement.

FRENCH COUNT WILLIS ANCESTRAL CASTLE TO WORKING GIRLS

PARIS, Sept. 2.—Noticing how some of the Paris school girls, rosy and fresh at first, grew paler from their work, Count de Fontourmy left, when he passed away recently, his castle and its park to the midwives of Paris. He also provided sufficient money to maintain the castle with a perpetual house party of young girls resting and recruiting there. In future any midwife needing a holiday has only to apply and to show that she is free from infectious complaint to be received there as a guest free of cost.

THE PRESS HUMORISTS

Being a funny man, constructing new jokes and repairing old ones—largely the latter—is serious business. The public is glad that the newspaper humorists are having their annual outing and convention, meeting this year at Peoria, Ill.

American humor at its best sparkles and satirizes, it flashes with unexpected relations between words and ideas, it throws the white light of satire on prigs and pharisees and fops and fools. But the demand is so voracious that too many counterfeits sell as the real goods.

You can market a very flat fragment of conversation, if you accompany the same with a smartly drawn picture of the low-necked girl and the creased-trouser man. It is not necessary that the picture have the least relation to the point of the dialogue. It must simply be smart, and show what men and women are wearing or aren't wearing.

To supply the demand the old stock of jokes must be worked over and over, though their point may be gone. The Englishman is represented as having no sense of fun, though he continues to buy and read Dickens and Thackeray. The Bostonian uses long words and wears spectacles, though most Bostonians now are aliens who are studying the English primer. The Philadelphian is slow, though the ball teams don't think so. The Chicago girl has large feet, in spite of her gift for high kicking. The mother-in-law is a creature of vinegar, though mothers-in-law are usually grandmothers, and grandmothers have sweet faces and kind hearts.

The press humorists are simply speeded to a higher rate than the humor mill was built to stand. No wonder the product often looks thin and the machinery wobbles audibly. The more conventions and trips and vacations they have, the greater will be the relief of this overstrain and overtime.

THE U. S. SENATORSHIP

Samuel M. Shortridge of San Francisco and Congressman E. A. Hayes of San Jose are standpat candidates for United States senator. Shortridge, according to his brother Charles M., will have a capital of $25,000 for the race, plus his oratory. Shortridge has a good style for a funeral, but for campaign purposes the old machine never could use him. He got a chance to speak a great deal during the Taft campaign, because no one else would in that funeral affair.

Hayes can beat Shortridge many times over so far as size of money sack is concerned. He also possesses arts which can easily overwhelm the boasted persuasive powers of his opponent. However, the Hayes candidacy cannot be regarded as a certainty. He offered himself to the Progressives once as their candidate, but this candidacy was of brief duration. He wanted to be the candidate of the old Republican machine, but once again he retired.

Hayes will now have two chances to run for senator. As a resident of San Jose he qualifies as a Northern Californian to go after Perkins' place. His congressional district extends along the coast as far as Ventura county, to the very portals of Los Angeles, and by shifting his abode to that end he can qualify as a Southern Californian to make the race for Senator Works' place two years further on.

THEODORE BELL'S NEW DISTINCTION

Theodore Bell's assertion before a congressional committee at Washington that the Southern Pacific supported Hiram Johnson for Governor furnished the most startling political news of recent days. No one else had ever heard it before and not even the railroad itself knew it. Everybody had believed that not only the Southern Pacific but also Patrick Calhoun had faithfully stood by Bell. Since Johnson was elected Bell's affiliations with the Calhoun elements of San Francisco have been open and notorious. It is evident that it has taken Bell a long time to suspect his friends.

The only reply made to Bell's statement at Washington was that he was "the biggest liar west of the Mississippi."

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

by Rev. D. Scarborough, Pastor of the Congregational Church Sunday As Preached at the Union Service of the Methodist Church, South

Text: "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God."—St. John 3:3.

I am thoroughly convinced that one of the great needs of the church today is more doctrinal preaching. I do not mean to say that we need a revival of the controversial discussions so common a few years ago on those points of difference which have separated us into the several branches of the Christian church, but I wish to affirm that we are in need of a campaign of Holy Ghost preaching on the great and fundamental doctrines of our holy Christianity which are held in common by us all. In lieu of this conviction I am coming to you this evening with a doctrinal message.

Now the doctrine which I am to discuss is written into the creed of every Protestant evangelical church in the world, so far as my knowledge goes. I am quite sure that it is a distinctive doctrine of every church represented in these union services.

Regeneration is the subject which we are to consider. There are several terms used in theology to define this great experience. We talk about it as Conversion, and again refer to it as the Quickening of the Spirit. Our Savior in the text calls it a New Birth. These several terms are synonymous in meaning, and whenever used refer to the change of heart which every penitent believer experiences when he is made a new creature in Christ Jesus.

You recognize our text as a part of that remarkable conversation which occurred between our Lord Jesus Christ and Nicodemus, who was a ruler and man of great prominence among the Jews. Unlike most of the Pharisees, Nicodemus had made up his mind not to believe on Jesus. Being an honest man he was open to conviction and went to our Savior on this occasion as an earnest inquirer after the truth. Jesus, knowing the sincerity of his heart, proceeded to acquaint Nicodemus with this great experience which introduces a believer into the kingdom of God. I shall notice:

1. Some reasons why the preaching of this doctrine is especially important today.

(1) There are many people who do not believe that it is essential to salvation. They contend that if one is honest in business, moral in his life, and charitable towards the needy, he is religious enough to get to heaven when he dies. Jesus said: "Except a man be born again he CANNOT see the kingdom of God."

(2) Then there are some who admit the necessity of conversion, but do not understand what it is. They think it consists in merely joining the church and making a public profession of Christ. They need to know what is implied in the new birth and to understand what the conditions are that must be met in order to experience it. Surely they need to know that mere church membership and Christian profession can never save a soul.

(3) The principal thing which necessitates the proclamation of this great truth is the fact that there are hundreds of people in all of our churches who have never been born again. I have not time to consider the question as to why this state of affairs has come to pass, but it is a fact that the host of unsaved people within the church is her greatest hindrance in accomplishing the mission for which the church was established.

We pass on to notice the question:

that they might be saved."

Everyone who has these evidences has been converted, even though he may not know when it occurred. Such a person will produce in his life those external evidences that will convince everybody else that he has been made a new creature in Christ Jesus. What are these evidences?

(1) Reformation of life. He has cut out all of his bad habits and is living a new life. Everybody sees the great change that has taken place.

(2) Restitution is a very strange evidence of conversion. Every converted person will, as far as possible, straighten out all the crooked things and right the wrongs that may be in his past life. He realizes that he must get right with his fellow men in order to be right with God. We have some notable instances of this in the Bible. Zacchaeus, for instance, He was a publican and had made a great deal of money dishonestly. He was anxious to see Jesus, and when he met the Lord he believed on him and was converted. As an evidence we notice his proposal to give half of his wealth to feed the poor, and to restore four-fold to every man whom he had defrauded out of anything.

(3) We pass on to say that Good Works is an external evidence of conversion. The Christian man knows that his good works cannot save him, but by good works he shows that he has faith in God.

(4) Lastly we shall say that the converted man always takes his stand on the right side of every moral issue. He can be counted on in a prohibition fight or a crusade against evil of any kind.

(5) We shall close this discussion by briefly stating the glorious privileges and possibilities of the children of God.

(1) Uninterrupted growth in grace. From the moment of one's conversion there may be and ought to be a constant growth in the knowledge and love of God.

(2) Power over temptation. In 1 Cor. 10:13, the Apostle says, "There hath no temptation take you but such as is common to man, but God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation provide a way of escape that ye may be able to bear it."

(3) He can live a life of peace with God and man and have a rest of soul that the world knows not of. He shall not be free from disappointments and may have to pass through trials and be severely tested, but in the midst of all his troubles he can have within a peace that passeth understanding.

The Christ who has brought this wonderful experience to my own heart I commend to everybody else.

METHODISTS FAVOR ASSESSMENT REFORM

At the Toronto Methodist Conference on June 16, the following resolution was moved by Mr. W. A. Douglas, B. A., and unanimously carried:

"Whereas there is an infinite difference between the use of the land for the multiplication of crops, building and other products, and the use of the land by speculators, not to add anything to the welfare of mankind, but to secure a share of the wealth produced by the industry of their neighbors, therefore be it

"Resolved that this Conference strongly recommends that the Assessment Act be so amended as to encourage the use of the land for beneficent production, and remove the temptation to speculation."—Land Values, Aug., 1913.

NEEDLE NOTES

An excellent way to finish armholes in a fine lingerie blouse is to sew the sleeves in by machine, then button-hole around the edges with either a course thread or soft floss.

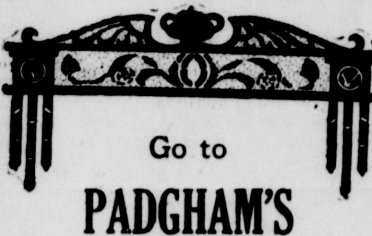

To make dress shields for thin white waists cut thin white flannel the size desired, trim the edge with narrow lace and tie in the dress with narrow tape.

Often corsets, otherwise in good condition, will break at the hips. To make them as good as new, cut strips of featherbone about four inches long, finishing the ends the same as for collars, and stitch these over the broken steels. When a large steel is broken double the featherbone to make it more durable.

A new fancy is to have white wash petticoats of pique or poplin closely fitted to the figure and finished around the bottom edge with embroidered scallopes. Such a skirt is daintier, less expensive and more durable than those made of silk and is worn with tailored suits and closely fitting light weight wool dresses.—Spokane Chronicle.

Strangest Lake in the World
London Chronicle: Near Lorrach, in the Black Forest, is the strangest lake in the world. It is called the Eichenzer See, and is perfectly dry for from ten to thirteen years at a time, after which periods subterranean springs refill the lake without any previous warning, flooding and destroying any crops that have been planted.

The soil in the bed of the lake is very productive, but the farmers and peasants never know in what year their work will be useless and their young crops "drowned." A few weeks ago the Eichenzer See, after having been dry for the last ten years, began refilling with water, which, in the deepest part, is now fifteen feet, the average depth being twelve feet. The waters of the lake generally remain a year or so, and then gradually disappear into the earth, leaving a rich soil behind.

EVENING PARTY

Miss Mary Smith Hostess to Young People Who Celebrated Her Birthday

The fifteenth birthday of Miss Mary Smith, daughter of Santa Fe agent and Mrs. F. T. Smith, was very happily observed last evening with a party of friends at her East Walnut street home of the Smiths. A number of friends were invited by the young lady to join in the celebration of the event and they in turn showered her with pretty gifts.

Miss Smith was assisted in entertaining by Misses Atlanta Merigold and Edna Mara, and they kept the ball of amusement rolling at a lively rate throughout the evening, merry games keeping everybody amused. Music was also enjoyed, Miss Helen Sylvester rendering vocal numbers and instrumental numbers being given by the hostess, Miss Mara, Miss Merigold and others.

The house had been made charming for the party by the use of red dahlias and ferns, and in these pretty surroundings refreshments of brick ice cream from Taylor's, cake, candy and fruit punch were served after the jolly games and music had been enjoyed.

Those present besides the youthful hostess were Misses Edna Mara, Atlanta Merigold, Helen Sylvester, Olive Brown, Gertrude Carnahan, Cora Fowler, Messrs. Charles Geyer, Mathers Mackelhanan, Harold Carnahan, John Knight, Perry Thomas, Neal Mitchell, Donald Smith, Richard Mara.

Former Santa Ana Girl Weds
Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Florence E. Zimmerman, formerly of Santa Ana, to James O. Douglass of Portland, Oregon, the wedding taking place in the latter city on Sunday, August 24.

Mrs. Douglass is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerman, who formerly lived on North Bush street, Santa Ana, but who removed to the northern city about two years ago. The many friends of the family will wish the bride and groom much happiness and substantial prosperity.

Boosting Carnival
A mammoth three-day boosting carnival is to be given in Los Angeles in the near future by the representatives of 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Canada, replacing the joint picnic planned for September by the Federation of State Societies. The exact date and place will be announced within the next two weeks by Secretary Parsons of the federation.

According to present preliminary arrangements, each organization will have a booth at the carnival, decorated with home products and offering many novel features. Contests of all kinds will be held and the evenings will be given over to dancing.

Mission Festival
On Sunday, August 31, the Ohio Synod, West Eighth Street, Los Angeles, held a Mission Festival, at which the members of the Evangelical Lutheran St. Petri congregation of Santa Ana took part. Rev. Kleinlein, who is the minister of the Ohio Synod as well as of the St. Petri congregation, gave two weeks ago a hearty invitation to his flock and the same was heartily accepted as every one of the members from Santa Ana, Anaheim, even as far as Murietta, met in Los Angeles, giving proof to their minister of the great interest they take in his work, which has been crowned with such great success.

Rev. Kleinlein held a very impressive service and every one was well rewarded for the little effort made in getting there.

Great kindness was shown to the visitors by the congregation of the Ohio Synod, a nice luncheon being served in the hall. The members of St. Petri congregation will remember the kind welcome they had for a long time to come. They expect the brothers and sisters of the Synod to pay them a return visit in a short time.

Successful L. T. L. Address
Mrs. Celia Noll, state recording secretary of the W. C. T. U., gave a most interesting address to the juniors, the L. T. L., on Sunday afternoon, in the First Congregational church. A number of juniors and some older people were present to enjoy the talk. The two churches best represented were the First Presbyterian and the United Presbyterian.

FREAK FASHION FAD FLASHED BY TELEGRAPH

Dame Fashion is fast appropriating the telegraph wires to promulgate her edicts, as witness the following frivolous dispatch sent over the country from New York, via newspaper dispatch, announcing the latest fad:

"It is came! What? The trouser skirt. Yep! Take it from no less an authority than Miss Marian C. Foltz, fashion scout for one of the city's biggest department stores, who arrived on the steamer, George Washington today, the well-dressed woman this winter will encase herself in a skirt that is designed to look exactly like the one the Turkish women wear."

"It's all the fault of the Balkan war. Following the Bulgarian victories the vulgar colors and designs were all the rage. Then came the Turkish reversal of form and the Ottoman victories and now all the Parisian dressmakers are vying with each other to put as much Turkish effect in their costumes as possible."

"The shades are invariably Turkish," said Miss Foltz, "and the skirts are being made tight at the ankles and full at the knees and hips, with draping, and cut to give every effect of a pair of full length bloomers. In fact, it looks as though the petticoat and frilly underthings had been banished forever."

Those bringing Mrs. Noll here yesterday plan to have her again, and hope to have the church parlor packed to hear her. She is an interesting speaker.

A new song book has been received and songs for boys will likely be a feature of the next meeting of the L. A. L.

Birthday Dinner
A family festivity last evening celebrated the fifty-first birthday of E. W. Smith, who resides at 846 Van Ness avenue. Decorations were in red and the big birthday cake, inscribed with the name of the honoree and the dates, 1862 and 1913, glowed with fifty-one red candles. Covers were laid for ten.

The Daughters of Veterans will hold a tea at the home of Miss Esther Patterson, 212 Orange avenue, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. All daughters of Veterans are invited to be present.

Singer Is Santa Ana Girl
Miss Bess Walsh, who is appearing here in a three night engagement at the Auditorium Theater, is a Santa Ana girl, having been reared here. She has made a success in operatic work but has gone into the better paying vaudeville field for a while. She was warmly greeted last night in her high class songs.

Donald McKay, who appears with Miss Walsh, his specialty being national dances, has achieved success in a European career. The duo goes north next week to join the Orpheum circuit.

Mrs. Frances Lawton Passes Away
Mrs. Frances H. Lawton passed peacefully away at her home, 522 East Third street, September first, 1913. She was the mother of Miss Minnie Frances Lawton of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Ruth M. Mooney of Denver, Colorado; and sister of Miss R. M. Swarthout, Mrs. S. M. Judd and Mrs. Alice A. Albee of Santa Ana.

Mrs. Lawton had resided here for many years and was held in warm esteem. Not very strong, Mrs. Lawton was yet not an invalid and her passing away came after a brief illness of a few days.

MANY "Y'S" TO LONG BEACH

Delegation of Santa Ana and Tustin Workers Made Hit in Convention

Quite a number of "Y" workers headed by Mrs. G. P. Hill, superintendent of "Y" work in Orange county, went to Long Beach on Saturday last to attend the very first Southern California convention held by the "Y's" independent of the parent society, the W. C. T. U. The party traveled by the Pacific Electric, and on arrival at Long Beach went to Friends Church, where the convention was held.

Five of the Santa Ana delegates and five of those from Tustin conducted a symposium, "Dry States," with much success, pleasing the audience. The part of the United States was taken by Maurice McElree, and nine girls, representing the nine prohibition states, told of temperance advance in those states. A song was given by the entire Orange county delegation, which was heartily applauded.

A luncheon was tendered at noon to all of the delegates from over Southern California, the hostesses being the Long Beach W. C. T. U. Federation. There were about half a hundred "Y" delegates to be entertained. The luncheon hour gave all a chance to get acquainted.

The convention was a decided success, especially considering that it was the initial convention of the Y. P. B. of the South. Miss Anita Williams of Long Beach, the Southern California "Y" president, presided over the convention, and Mrs. L. B. Doughty, state general "Y" secretary, was present to address and advise the young people.

The delegates from Orange county included Misses Ruth Clotier, Marie Harris, Corinne Burns, Esther Flor, Fay McDowell, Lucy Hill, Marian and Mabel Drew, Maurice McElree and Mrs. G. P. Hill from Santa Ana; Misses Ina Phinney, Gertrude Utt, Clara Thorman, Avis Smith and Edith Rawlings of Tustin.

AN IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE NOW IS PENDING

Probably the most important change in the business life of Santa Ana that will be brought about by the building of the new four-story Spurgeon block, at the corner of Fourth and Sycamore will be the permanent change of location of the Crookshank-Beatty Company's big dry goods, cloak and suit and millinery stores. This is the biggest mercantile establishment now occupying quarters in the old Spurgeon block, and it is a pioneer institution of Santa Ana, having been located where it now is for the past twenty-five years.

Mr. John Beatty, the head of this concern, has made arrangements to occupy permanently the present postoffice site, into which he will move his store as soon as the postoffice vacates, which will be as soon as its new quarters, two doors south on Sycamore, are ready for occupancy. Here the Crookshank-Beatty Co. will have a splendid home and a fine business location, only half a block off Fourth street, adjoining (except for a passage) its old location and only two doors from the new location of the postoffice. The floor space will be large, 50x120, well lighted and ventilated on three sides. In fact it will be two big store rooms in one without partitions.

Pending removal, the Crookshank-Beatty Co. is conducting a big removal sale, at which big values are offered in all departments. Mr. Beatty says he wants to cut his stock down as much as possible before removing, so to save expense of handling and damage of goods—also to convert all this season's goods into cash with which to discount his bills on large purchases for the new store.

LABOR DAY OBSERVED AT SOUTH M. E. CHURCH

Labor Day was observed yesterday morning at the Methodist Church, South, by Rev. D. Scarborough, the pastor, who preached on "The Mission of the Church in Solving the Problems of Labor and Capital." Mr. Scarborough spoke particularly on organized labor and capital, dwelling especially on the causes of disagreement and the duty of the church in the case.

He declared that it was not the part of the church to espouse the cause of one side or the other or to bring one side over to the other, but to get between them and attempt to bring the two sides together.

The speaker urged on his hearers the necessity for standing always for justice and fair dealing in all disputes between labor and capital and to seek to bring about a better understanding between the warring factions.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Auditorium

The pictures and the vaudeville at the Auditorium for the first half of this week are very good. The picture of the "Hanging Rock" is made up of beautiful scenery and the story is an intensely interesting one.

Of the vaudeville acts that by Hail, the leading artist and slack wire artist in the building feature. Hail is splendid in his line and performs many clever tricks. He does his work with apparent certainty of every move and in last night's show made but one slip.

The sketch by Ralph Cummings & Co. is somewhat after the dilemma of "Mr. Pickwick in the Wrong Room." The bright, breezy act was heartily received.

McKay and Walsh have the musical act of this bill. Their work is interesting to local people because Miss Walsh is a native of Santa Ana. Her friends here know her as Miss Bess Walsh.

Demurrer Filed

A demurrer has been filed by Attorneys Daniel & Daniel in the damage suit brought against G. W. Moore, manager of the Celery Growers' Association, by Josephine Pletcher, who asserted that she was damaged $3500 worth when Moore's automobile struck her on South Main street.

Suit Over Land

William Moore has brought suit against C. R. LaGourgue to compel him to carry out a trade in land. Moore was to deed land in San Diego for land in the northwest part of the county. The complaint alleges that LaGourgue declines to deed his ranch. A. M. Stron is attorney for the plaintiff.

Skelly Defendant

The starting of a foreclosure suit by the Home Mutual Building & Loan Association against Frank P. Skelly brings to mind one of the most baffling cases that the superior court ever had to deal with. The case is that in which Skelly was tried on a charge of burning his wife to death by throwing gasoline upon her. The verdict of the jury was not guilty.

The complaint filed today by Attorney H. C. Head states that on May 30, 1909, $2,000 was loaned Skelly on a note signed by him and his wife, Ethel Skelly. A mortgage was given on Skelly's property at Westminster. The complaint states that Skelly is fourteen months in arrears in his payments, has allowed the property to be sold to the state for delinquent taxes, and that the property is receiving no care. Skelly has put in a petition and has been declared bankrupt, and the disposal of the Westminster property by the superior court has been agreed to by H. H. Moye, trustee in bankruptcy. There is $1734 due on the note. The court is asked to appoint a receiver to care for the property.

Suit is Brought

Emma Cooper, with H. C. Head as attorney, has brought a foreclosure suit against Edna A. and G. M. Hoenes. The note for $1750 was given on February 28, 1913. The property is the west 100 feet of lot 41, the Park tract, Santa Ana.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

ONCE AGAIN FREE IS CHARGED WITH
ISSUING THREATS

Accused of Pointing Rifle at Enemy—Slaff Must Keep Away from Here

Once more there has been an outbreak between Charles Free, blacksmith at San Juan Capistrano, and G. H. Marshall, owner of the garage in the same village. This time Free was taken to jail after having leveled a rifle across lots at Marshall and after threatening to kill him.

Free did not fire the rifle. He may have only contemplated what would happen if he should pull the trigger. Under Sheriff Law and Deputies Dean and Stacey went to the mission town on a telephone notification that there was trouble a-brew. Law found Free in his room asleep in a chair with a bottle of liquor close at hand. Law concluded that to leave Free there would be a dangerous proceeding, and accordingly he returned to Santa with him. He got the names of four witnesses who saw Free level the rifle or make threats.

The bad blood between the two men started through jealousy on Free's part. There was a fight in which Marshall had his skull broken with a piece of gas pipe and Free was fired upon by Marshall. After that matter was settled, quiet reigned for a time, but Free was again arrested for threatening Marshall. That case was disposed of only a few weeks ago.

Must Keep Away

Ed Slaff has 120 days in jail awaiting him if he shows up around the home of E. W. Poole in this city, or in any manner attempts to give liquor to Fred Poole or to get Fred to run away from home. Slaff is an Escondido youth, arrested for giving liquor to Fred Poole. Justice Cox gave him to understand that there would be no hesitation about sending him to jail if he violates the court's order in any way.

TOO CLOSE TO RAIL,
MOTOR CAR'S STEPS

Close Shave for Hawk and Ross at Railroad Crossing on South Main Street

Victor Hawk, manager of the local United Oil plant, and Fred Ross, an automobile man of Santa Ana, were in an automobile that mixed up with a part of the Southern Pacific motor yesterday. "At least, Hawk was in the machine when the bump occurred. Ross jumped when he saw what might happen and he was heading for the mesa when the motor came to a stop. Hawk was driving his automobile. Ross sat beside him. They saw the gasoline motor coming toward the crossing as they approached the railroad tracks at the south end of Main street. Hawk intended to slow up and give the motor plenty of room, but his brakes did not respond quickly enough, and before he knew it his car was close to the nearest rail. All of the motor slid by without touching the automobile except the step. The step caught the front end of the automobile, tore a tire, sprung the steering gear and bent the forward part of a fender.

Ross made a clean jump, landed ten feet from the machine and when the motorman stopped the car and started back to take notes of the occurrence, Ross was coming in off the prairie. The automobile was fixed up in an hour's time so that it was driven on its way.

ANCIENT MASONIC
APRON HEIRLOOM

Auto Salesman of New Orleans Owns Silk Emblem Now Over 100 Years Old

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.—A Masonic apron more than 100 years old is in the possession of Frank Williams, district manager of an automobile company.

According to Mr. Williams the apron was originally the property of his great-great-grandfather, Jesse Kent of Yorkshire, England, and has been handed down five generations of his family.

The apron is of silk, was made in 1799 and contains all the symbols significant in Masonry. According to Mr. Williams it is the only one of its kind in existence. At the time the apron was made there was no difference between the Royal Arch, Seventh degree and the Blue lodge, which is the third degree, since which the lodges have been separated.

CHAUTAUQUA IS
AID TO THE FARMER
SAYS U. S. BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Chautauquas have become a highly important agency in the teaching of agriculture, declares the United States Bureau of Education in its annual review of agricultural instruction, just made public.

The bureau finds that "each year the chautauqua movement becomes a more decided factor in the education of the farmer." It is now a common occurrence to find these programs offering courses in stock raising, poultry raising, soils, seed testing, household economics, etc.

More than 500 local Chautauquas were held this season in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas and Missouri, according to the bureau, more than 100 being held in towns with an average population of only 500.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—A round-the-world jaunt will be started next week by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter, on Howard Gould's handsome private yacht Niagara, which the Leiters have leased for the trip. The son of the late Chicago multi-millionaire today announced the itinerary. The party will sail to England, thence to the Mediterranean, where they will cruise for several months. About the first of the year the party will go to Ceylon via the Suez canal, China, Japan and Philippines ports and Hawaii. The return trip will be made via the Pacific coast and the Panama canal. Including Mr. and Mrs. Leiter the party will be their sons, Joseph, Jr., and John; Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams, Mrs. Leiter's parents, and the Misses Frances and Dorothy Williams. Former Representative Longworth and Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth will be members during a portion of the cruise.

Extra expenses keeps that from accumulating—At the end of ten or twelve years you have around a thousand dollars saved up. NOW LET ME TELL YOU HOW YOU CAN HAVE A HOME IN ADDITION TO YOUR ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN MONEY. Address P. O. Box 54, Santa Ana, Cal.

Ideal Fireless Cookers

If we knew of a better fireless cook stove than the "Ideal" we would now be talking about it. We long ago discovered that while many good articles can be satisfactorily reproduced in a cheaper form, cheap fireless cookers are utterly worthless.

The principles upon which fireless cookers are built will not permit of satisfactory cheap construction, yet if our statement would not be misconstrued, placing us in a false light, we could truthfully claim that the "Ideal" is the cheapest fireless cooker on the market. All things considered, it is.

No amount of talk here, however, can begin to convince you like a demonstration at our store. It would be decidedly worth while for you to come and at least learn the advantages of "Ideal" Fireless Cook Stoves.
